

Terrence G. Harvey
NLP/AI Laboratory
Computer and Information Science
214 Smith Hall
Newark, DE 19716
harvey@cis.udel.edu

Objective:

A teaching position at a university, where I can focus on the teaching that I love in the atmosphere of an active research institution. Ideally, the position will include some control over curriculum development. I also prefer a department/institution that has a strong sense of community.

Research Interests:

Natural Language Generation, Multi-Agent Systems, hierarchical planning, text planning, text structure. Thesis topic: Generating/Integrating communicative plans in a multi-agent context.

Education: University of Delaware

Enrolled: Ph.D. candidate, Artificial Intelligence (Computer Science), major concentration of Natural Language Generation, minor in Multi-Agent Systems. Comprehensive exam 5/97, Qualifying exam (thesis proposal) 6/99.

Masters Degree in Computer Science, 5/97.

B.Sc. Business Administration, Marketing concentration 6/84.

Papers (see website for a full listing) :

Planning Alternatives for an Intelligent Scheduler
International Joint Conference on AI 2001 AI in Manufacturing Workshop, Seattle
Terrence Harvey and Keith Decker

Integrating the Communicative Plans of Multiple, Independent Agents
Autonomous Agents 1999 Workshop on Communicative Agents, Seattle
Terrence Harvey, Keith Decker, and Owen Rambow

Integrating Text Plans for Conciseness and Coherence
Association for Computational Linguistics 1998, Montreal
Terrence Harvey and Sandra Carberry

Exploiting Multiple Goals and Intentions in Decision Support for the Management of Multiple Trauma: A Review of the TraumAID Project. Artificial Intelligence Journal , 105(1-2), pp. 263-293, 1998. Bonnie Webber, Sandra Carberry, John R. Clarke, Abigail Gertner, Terrence Harvey, Ron Ryman, and Richard Washington.

Employment

University of Delaware:

Part-time Instructor, currently teaching CISC280 (Spring 2003). Also: CISC280 (Fall 2002), CISC105 (Spring 2002).

Graduate Research Assistant or Teaching Assistant (9/95 - 1/2002).

PNC Bank (Delaware):

Branch Sales Manager, 1009 N. Union St. Office (12/89 to 9/92). Managed five full-time and six part-time employees. Made lending decisions for retail and small commercial credit. Developed and implemented annual sales plan, with goals for each employee. Prepared annual budget and monthly variance reports. Maintained audit and security procedures throughout branch.

After 9/92, I remained at PNC part-time while starting graduate studies.

Other PNC/Bank of Delaware positions, including Branch Operations Manager, Branch Administrator, and Branch Management Trainee 5/85 - 8/89.